Filed as Class 10: both sheets are headed for the 10th class (Paper - X / PR X, "10th (Fresh/Reappear)").

The source answer sheet arrives with the correct bubbles already shaded in; options are transcribed unmarked and no answer key is included.

The objective rubric is printed in Urdu on the board sheet and is given here as an English rendering.

The Urdu sentences in the translation question are reconstructed from the scan and set in Nastaliq; the Urdu text layer is not searchable. A native reader should proof them before relying on them.

Objective Q.12: the printed word under the watermark appears misprinted (a candidate has written "frozen" above it); set as "frozen", which the option set confirms.

Q-IX sentence (8) is partly under the watermark and is read as probable.

The subjective sheet's top reference line is trimmed at the scan edge; only "PR X (01) 22" survives. The objective sheet prints "(02) (22)". Both kept as printed.

Board wording kept verbatim: "Khilaphat", "Langston Hughs", "Edger Guest", "hectares" (hectares), "Each night ! burn", Q-IV (iii) "Why do the records ... are burnt?", Q-V (i) "What Pakistan is gifted with?". The passage in Q-V opens a quotation mark it never closes; so does Q-VIII(a).
