SECTION "B"

Marks: 36

Read the following passage carefully and answer any 06 of the following questions. Each correct answer carries 03 marks.

18

Hazrat Umar (ؓ) was kind and sympathetic to the needy. Unstinted services to humanity was his foremost concern. He roamed about at night often under cover in order to acquaint himself with the condition of his people. One night as he was roaming outside Madina, he observed in a house a woman cooking something and two children sitting beside her crying for food. After waiting for some time, he asked the woman what the matter was. She told him that her children were hungry, that there was nothing in the kettle except water and few pieces of stones and that she was lulling them to believe that food was being cooked for them. The Caliph without disclosing his identity hurried to Madina, three miles away, brought a bag of flour and was not content until the appetite was satisfied.

Questions:

1. How did Hazrat Umar (ؓ) show concern for the needy?
2. What did he observe while roaming outside Madina at night?
3. Why was the woman cooking stones in the kettle?
4. How did the Caliph help the hungry family?
5. Pick out any three words from the passage that show kindness or sympathy.
6. Identify any three adverbs from the passage and state what they modify.
7. Write the summary of the passage.

8. Paraphrase the following lines.

5

Dost thou behold thy lost youth all aghast?
Dost reel from righteous Retribution's blow?
Then turn from blotted archives of the past,
And find the future's pages white as snow.

9. Read the following Stanza and answer the questions given at the end.

8

Courage must come from the soul within,
The man must furnish the will to win,
So figure it out for yourself, my lad,
You were born with all that the great have had,
With your equipment they all began.
Get hold of yourself, and say: "I can."
