Note: Read the passage carefully and answer any SIX of the following questions from question no.1 to question no.7. Each correct answer carries 3 marks. The rest of the questions are compulsory. 18

Everyone had easy access to Hazrat Umar (RA) and every person was free to question his actions. Once he said, "I have no more authority over the Bait-ul-Mal than a custodian has over the property of an orphan. If I had been well-to-do, I would not accept an honorarium. If not, I would draw a little to meet ordinary necessities of life. Brothers! I am your servant and you should neither unnecessarily hoard nor waste. I must work for the welfare and prosperity of our people". Once a person shouted in a public meeting, "O Umar! Fear Allah". The audience wanted to silence him but the Caliph prevented them from doing so, saying, "If such frankness is not exhibited by the people, they are good for nothing and if we do not listen to them, we would be like them".

- Q1. How did Hazrat Umar (RA) view his authority over public wealth?
- Q2. What principles did he set regarding hoarding and wasting wealth?
